Dear Mr. President:

It is with honor that I nominate CSM Cary L. Green for selection into the Distinguished Members of the Quartermaster Regiment (DMOR). CSM Green has served the Quartermaster (QM) Corps with distinction by providing leadership, training, guidance and counsel during his 30-year career. Not only has he served in a wide variety of positions that have contributed immensely to the Corps' long and celebrated history, but did this through countless acts of selfless service to innumerable Soldiers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Officers and their Families.

I believe the single most poignant example of his dedication and contributions to the Corps was the effort he spearheaded and gain approval from the Quartermaster General to broaden the CSM selection criteria to all 92 series instead of quotas based on specific specialties. This single effort will impact our Corps by ensuring that the best and most competent leaders are selected from across all our specialties to lead Soldiers and serve families.

In addition to the many leadership and staff assignments that most QM Non-Commissioned Officers perform throughout their career, CSM Green has served with distinction as a CSM since 1999.

CSM Green's accomplishments within the QM Corps rank him well above his peers and constituents. His selection into the DMOR is only the prelude to his future nomination and ultimate selection into the QM Hall of Fame.

Dear Mr. President,

It is my distinct pleasure and honor to strongly endorse the nomination of Command Sergeant Major Gary L. Green to be a Distinguished Member of the Regiment. CSM Green has served the Quartermaster Corps and the Army with distinction for nearly 30 years.

CSM Green is a combat tested leader who deployed to Kuwait and Iraq during Operation IRAQI FREEDOM as the Command Sergeant Major for the 240th Quartermaster Battalion. While there, his battalion successfully received, stored, and distributed over 230 million gallons of fuel through over 180 miles of petroleum pipeline all under the harshest conditions imaginable. As the 49th Quartermaster Group's Command Sergeant Major, CSM Green has continued to mentor, guide and inspire over 2000 Soldiers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Officers to achieve more than they thought possible. As my personal advisor and champion of Soldiers' issues, CSM Green has been invaluable. His insights and sound judgment, coupled with his unquestionable loyalty and dedication to duty, Soldiers and their families make him an outstanding Command Sergeant Major.

CSM Green truly epitomizes the ideal of the senior enlisted Soldier and the characteristics that set him apart as a Distinguished Member of the Regiment. He is an exceptional Command Sergeant Major whom I would fight to get as my CSM any time for any job.

Sincerely,

His emphasis on safety helped his department win the Department of the Army Safety Award. He served in this position until 1995.
- From May 1995 until October 1995 he served as the Support Operations NCOIC for the 17th Corps Support Battalion, 45th Corps Support Group (FWD), 25th Infantry Division.
- CSM Green while assigned as the NCOIC of the Basic Petroleum Logistics Division, Petroleum and Water Department, U.S. Army Quartermaster Center and School, from 1996 to 1998, developed numerous programs which had a significant impact on his instructors and the Advanced Individual Training students. As a result of his leadership and guidance, his battalion successfully received, stored, and issued more than 200 million gallons of fuel and offloaded/bunkered more than 106 Military Sealift Command tankers, Naval vessels, and 39 Japanese Self Defense Force vessels without incident. His inspiration and mentorship led to several Soldiers winning U.S. Army Pacific Command Soldier of the Year competitions. As a result of this leadership, the battalion received three quarterly Army Retention awards for the highest retention rate within the 10th Area Support Group.

- From 2002 until 2004, CSM Green served as the CSM for the 240th Quartermaster Battalion, 49th Quartermaster Group, Ft. Lee, VA. This was a huge feat considering that Operation Iraqi Freedom was the first time all components of the Inland Petroleum Distribution System were used to support combat operations. CSM Green ensured the battalion's success with effective command and control of twenty-four diverse quartermaster and transportation companies during reception, staging, onward movement, and integration for wartime operations. His leadership facilitated the logistical, administrative and mental preparedness of the units and the 2,400 Soldiers assigned to the units for war. His contributions during mission analysis and problem solving led to the battalion always maintaining momentum despite the great pressures of war and the constant demand for the battalion to support diverse missions related to bulk fuel transportation, storage, distribution and quality surveillance of over 1.2 million gallons weekly.
- From 2004 until present, CSM Green has served as the principal advisor to the Group Commander of all enlisted matters for the 49th Quartermaster Group consisting of over 2,300 Soldiers and their families. CSM Green ensured that the Group met or exceeded all mission requirements:

  - met or exceeded all FORSCOM directed reenlistment goals.
  - under his leadership, the 49th Quartermaster Group has competed and won several Quartermaster Center and School NCO and Soldier of the Year competitions.

Another example of his contributions to the Quartermaster Corps was his staffing and obtaining approval from the Quartermaster General to broaden the CSM selection criteria to all 92 series instead of quotas based on specific specialties. This single effort will impact our Corps by ensuring that the best and most competent leaders are selected from across all our specialties to lead Soldiers and serve families.
